

MARSHALL COUNTY REPUBLICAN,

VOL. I.]

HOLLY SPRINGS, FRIDAY, APRIL 6, 1839.

NO. 39.

We are authorised to state that Felix H. Walker, Esq. of De Soto County, will serve, if elected Judge of the High Court of Errors and Appeals, for the Northern district, composed of the counties of Tishomingo, Tippah, Marshall, Desoto, Tunica, Corhoma, Panola, Lafayette, Pontotoc, Itawamba, Monroe, Chickasaw, Yalobusha, and Tallahatchie Counties.

With this month ends the 2d year of this paper—as a Friend and Republican. We have determined to take no subscribers for the next 12 months, that do not pay us $2, in advance; and we take this opportunity to notify our friends that the paper cannot be continued unless more aid is given, than mere names are extended to us. The opposition have now, here and there, been brought up in all the newspapers, and we decline. We hope every democrat, who writes the paper continued and conducted with vigor when ample encouragement can be given, will come forward and put down his name for the new volume and pay us the sum demanded in advance. That our friends may be enabled to incur no liability in making this demand, we will state that we have to pay cash for paper, ink and journeyman.

SOUTHERN LITERARY MESSENGER.

A VIRGINIA MONTHLY JOURNAL. Published at Richmond, Thomas W. White, and Devoted to every department of Literature and the fine Arts: At $5 per annum, payable in advance.

In the prospectus issued in the infancy of this periodical, we made use of the following language, as a literary journal performs so important a function in the present organization, it behoves him who undertakes such a work to bring with him a fixed determination to make it worthy the rank which it ought to occupy, and the end which it ought to fulfil. Such, the publisher can with confidence assert, is the determination with which he regards the enterprise before him. If rulers can be commanded by money, and if unremitted diligence and steady perseverance on his part will procure their ordinary results, then may he venture to assure all those who regard for literature may prompt them to look upon his designs with favor, that the Southern Literary Messenger will be worthy of their support.

How the promises herein implied have been carried into effect, will be best ascertained by a reference to facts: by reference to the many encomiums from the highest quarters—and to the very extensive and solid patronage which the Messenger has usually received.

The first volume, forming a handsome super-royal octavo of 845 pages, and having a copious index, terminated with the thirteenth No. of the Messenger—the two first numbers, having been issued, it will be remembered, at intervals of a fortnight.

In commencing the second volume we have aimed at improvement. In the literary and critical department such aid has been promised and found in such sources as cannot fail to place the Messenger upon a level with any similar publication in the United States, if not in Europe. In the typographical and entire mechanical execution we are determined to spare neither labor or expense. A new font of type has been received expressly for the work, and the extensive arrangement we have in contemplation will not fail to give the entire publication a neater and more pleasing appearance.

While we return sincere thanks for the patronage already so nobly afforded us, we take this opportunity of soliciting a countenance. More especially we call upon the south for support—and are well assured that our appeal will not be in vain.

The Southern Literary Messenger is printed on new type and paper of superior quality, at $5 per annum payable in all cases in advance.

Subscription cannot be received for less than one year, and must commence with the beginning of some volume.

Five new subscribers, by sealing their names and twenty dollars at one time to the proprietor will receive five copies for one year.

An omission to notify the proprietor of a discontinuance before the commencement of the volume succeeding that for which subscription has been made will be considered a continuance of subscription—and a compliance with those conditions will be rightly exacted from every one who may have failed in giving the proper notice.

All communications in relation to the Messenger, must be addressed to T. W. WHITE, Richmond, Va.

THE WEEKLY METROPOLITAN.

A general Literary Historical Congressional and Miscellaneous Journal, published at Washington D. C., in its departments aims at the highest character Printed in clear good type on a large sheet of fine white paper, the whole of it being devoted to valuable and interesting matter.

TERMS—One Dollar and a half per annum in advance.

Four papers will be sent to the order of any person acting as agent for the collection of subscribers, enclosing five dollars; nine for ten dollars; nineteen for twenty dollars; fifty for fifty dollars. The enclosures by mail at the risk of the Editors. The receipt of a number of the paper will be a sufficient receipt for the money transferred.

Postmasters, booksellers and in general all persons, in the success of such an enterprise, are respectfully requested to act agents for the Metropolitan; the above terms being of the most liberal character.

All letters to be addressed free of postage. LANGTREE & O'SULLIVAN.

Georgetown, D. C.

Editors throughout the country are requested to copy and notice this advertisement; the Metropolitan will be sent to all complying with this request.

A NEW PAPER IN GRENADA

This paper will supersede the further publication of the "Grenada Bulletin," to be published twice a week in the town of GRENADA, A NEWSPAPER, TO BE CALLED

THE BOWIE KNIFE:

"TOUCH AND WE PIERCE."

TERMS—Six dollars per year in advance, and eight dollars if not paid within three months from the time of subscribing. For six months five dollars in advance, no subscription will be taken for a shorter period.

The Terms of advertising will be the same as charged by other Mississippi papers.

OUR MAIDEN SPEECH.

As strangers, we make a respectful how to the citizens of Grenada, and the people of Yalobusha County; and in conformity with time-honored custom, we will proceed to fly a friendly banner in the shape of a prospectus. The BOWIE KNIFE, although the title may appear somewhat unseemly, will make war on the vicious practices of that deadly weapon. It will be found the inveterate foe of vice in all its aspects; and will, with equal ardor, add polish to the social system. As individuals, the undersigned will never compromise the high privilege of thinking and acting for themselves in all matters relating to National and State politics but in their capacity as Editors of a public journal, they will not suffer any pre-conceived bias to usurp the empire of thought and free discussion. Our paper will endeavor to steer clear of the shoals and sand-bars upon which so many presses have been wrecked, and their part sun cargoes buried in the deep sea of political treachery and ingratitude. The editors desire that their contemplated journal shall not have a mere ephemeral existence—a life of that character which lives only on the foot of airy excitement, and then sickens and dies for the want of the proper aliment of indispensable to its maintenance. A paper should not gloat on the mere temporary glories of the world, or ally itself with a faction, whose death-like struggle for power and place, urged forward by vaulting ambition, would speedily consign it to untimely grave. We have no wish to cherish prematurely, or receive the laudatory tear of some political mountebank when our ear shall approach to dissection. No! the BOWIE KNIFE is ambitious of a higher and more elevated sphere of action; it will brandish its blade not in strife, slay, and to hawk political reputation; not to flesh its "maiden sword" in the bosom of the just and the generous; not to assail the honest and upright man in the peaceful pursuits of active life. On the contrary, far from assuming any other than an orderly, quiet, and law-loving demeanor, it will strike its blows where the public good requires, and then only to advance "the greatest good of the greatest number." Thus while the BOWIE KNIFE will tend to ridicule and bring into disrepute the name which it wears, and the uses to which it has too often been applied, its efforts will go to strengthen the enabling traits which add to the dignity of man.

We are frank to express our belief, founded upon no little experience in such matters, that it will require the united aid of both the political parties who know the citizens of Yalobusha, and the adjoining Counties, to sustain one Press entirely in the town of Grenada.

STANDS Two days off of every time at Burlington, and the balance of his time at Joel Root's stable, 3 miles south of Altonville, on the road leading from Adamsville to Burlington.

ECLIPSE The undersigned are of adverse political sentiments, and while they have resolved to give political editorials occupying the space of four or five columns of that paper purporting to be "the reply of Mr. Stanly, of North Carolina, to Dr. Duncan." I was surprised to receive a reply of such length. I was not present all the time the member was speaking. I heard him, as I have stated, when he commenced I was present when he finished, and his last remark was, "I have detained the House more than fifteen minutes." I thought he was correct as to the time he occupied the floor—a short time in which to make a speech occupying four and a half columns of one of the largest newspaper sheets.

The general department of the paper will speak for itself, and we shall enter upon the discharge of our many and laborious duties as public editors, with a confident hope that the people of Grenada will reward our exertions with their known liberality.

WM. NEED, O. S. SMITH.
March 1, 1839.

purest and holiest character. We feel as if our prosperity is identified with the community in which we live—and by a reciprocity of mutual interests, we entertain a flattering hope that the chain of union will be linked closer and closer together!

We shall devote a liberal portion of our paper to the discussion of southern commerce and improvement. We are the warm advocates of direct trade and internal improvements in the south, and we will aspire with honest hearts to be ranked among the most ardent friends of Mississippi's prosperity and welfare.

The Banking System of the day shall receive due notice, and while we speak both severe and independent, we shall never seek to invade existing law nor to outrage the standard rules of true dignity and good taste.

The town of Grenada is favorably located and it shall be our chief aim to make its merits known, and to advance as rapidly as possible, its coming prosperity and greatness. With cheerfulness and alacrity we will be found defending Grenada on all occasions, not only against foreign calumny but also domestic enemies.

The undersigned are of adverse political sentiments, and while they have resolved to give political editorials occupying the space of four or five columns of that paper purporting to be "the reply of Mr. Stanly, of North Carolina, to Dr. Duncan." I was surprised to receive a reply of such length. I was not present all the time the member was speaking. I heard him, as I have stated, when he commenced I was present when he finished, and his last remark was, "I have detained the House more than fifteen minutes."

The general department of the paper will speak for itself, and we shall enter upon the discharge of our many and laborious duties as public editors, with a confident hope that the people of Grenada will reward our exertions with their known liberality.

WM. NEED, O. S. SMITH.
March 1, 1839.

STALLIONS & JACKS

RED FOX

STANDS Two days off of every time at Burlington, and the balance of his time at Joel Root's stable, 3 miles south of Altonville, on the road leading from Adamsville to Burlington.

ECLIPSE STANDS at or near Waterford and at Wallhouse 7 miles north of Chilohoma and at Durhams and Neville 4 miles South of Chilohoma.

PRIAM STANDS at the stable of W. McMahon 22 miles South east of Memphis and at the Eagan Roost 22 miles from its place.

PRINTER STANDS at J. A. Popes 7 miles north of Hudsonville at Mr Smiths near Parsons mill 4 miles west of Hudsonville and at Sheriff Woods.

JOHN STOCKHOLDER STANDS at the stable of Harris Walton 2 miles west of Chinohoma on the Belmont road and at J. A. Parks Burlington Panola Co.

CAROLINEAN STANDS at W. L. Lemiers Holly Springs and at Major P. F. Armstrongs 2 miles from Chilohoma one half his time at each place.

SIR HENRY STANDS at the stable of William Shelly 5 miles from J. H. H. 5 miles East of Salem and at Evan Shelly Ricks Tippah Co.

BEETHAM JR. STANDS at John Sheldons stable one mile of Holly Springs the season expiring the last of June.

JACKS, JOHN RANDO, PH STANDS at the stable of Col. H. Allison's mills 7 miles south of Holly Springs S. R. J. H.

STANDS at H. O. Aitens Waterford the second ensuing 1st July.

STORY, HADLEY, ARNOLD & CO. COMMISSION MERCHANTS, AGENTS OF THE MISSISSIPPI UNION BANK No. 36 Camp Street, NEW ORLEANS.

Jan. 5, 1839.—20-d.

JAMES T. DUNLAP, ATTORNEY AT LAW, HOLLY SPRINGS, MISS.

OFFICES doors North of Williamson's Hotel RICHARD O. DAVIDSON, ATTORNEY AT LAW,

Having located himself at Oxford, Lafayette County, will practice in all the courts of the Eighth judicial circuit, Miss.

All business confined to him will be promptly attended to.

Dr. J. G. CHISHOLM, OFFERS his professional services to the Citizens of Holly Springs, in the practice of Medical Surgery & Obstetrics.

Office next door to Dr. Reid, where he may be found at all times, unless absent on his professional business.

Aug. 4, 1839.

DR. J. G. CHISHOLM, OFFERS his professional services to the Citizens of Holly Springs, in the practice of Medical Surgery & Obstetrics.

Office next door to Dr. Reid, where he may be found at all times, unless absent on his professional business.

Aug. 4, 1839.

THE general news of the day will be condensed with that system, order, and variety which should ever mark, but is seldom observed, by the disciples of Plautus, Wit, humor, and stirring anecdotes—the offspring of genius and sentiment—will find in the BOWIE KNIFE a ever varying friend. We shall ever recognize with becoming humility the commands and Heavenly precepts of the ministers of the Cross, and our rest will second in no irreverent manner the pious labors of those that preach the word of Him who tempts the wind to the shore land. Albeit not strictly orthodox ourselves, we shall find with much satisfaction all great designs which ave for their object the "perfection of law, order, and religion." Morality and religion—free from bigotry and superstition, and to which they are no hindrance win sisters, and must create in the bosom of every virtuous man an impulse for

DAVID BOYD, Clerk.

March 6, 1839.—No. 37—6-w—P. 1c. 57.

JOSEPH PRINTER.

General news of the day will be

condensed with that system, order, and

variety which should ever mark, but is seldom observed, by the disciples of

Plautus, Wit, humor, and stirring

anecdotes—the offspring of genius and

sentiment—will find in the BOWIE KNIFE a ever varying friend. We shall ever recognize with becoming humility the commands and Heavenly precepts of the ministers of the Cross, and our rest will second in no irreverent manner the pious labors of those that preach the word of Him who tempts the wind to the shore land. Albeit not strictly orthodox ourselves, we shall find with much satisfaction all great designs which ave for their object the "perfection of law, order, and religion."

Morality and religion—free from bigo-

try and superstition, and to which they are

no hindrance win sisters, and must create in the bosom of every virtuous man an

impulse for

JOSEPH PRINTER.

General news of the day will be

condensed with that system, order, and

variety which should ever mark, but is seldom observed, by the disciples of

Plautus, Wit, humor, and stirring

anecdotes—the offspring of genius and

sentiment—will find with much satisfaction all great designs which ave for their object the "perfection of law, order,

and religion."

Morality and religion—free from bigo-

try and superstition, and to which they are

no hindrance win sisters, and must create in the bosom of every virtuous man an

impulse for

JOSEPH PRINTER.

General news of the day will be

condensed with that system, order, and

variety which should ever mark, but is seldom observed, by the disciples of Plautus, Wit, humor, and stirring